

Kyle Lee

Senior Vice President & Head of Mergers and Acquisitions

Kyle Lee is Senior Vice President & Head of Mergers and Acquisitions (M&A) at ST Telemedia. In this role, he leads a team responsible for undertaking investments, M&As as well as strategic corporate development activities of the company.

Kyle has 30 years of experience in the areas of finance, strategic and venture investment, as well as business development. Since joining ST Telemedia in 1998, Kyle has led and/or participated in major investment and corporate development activities of the company with respect to its communications, data centres and technology portfolio.

Prior to ST Telemedia, he held various positions in the areas of finance and business development with various Asian companies, and has worked and lived in Vietnam and Myanmar. Kyle holds a Bachelor's degree in Accounting from the National University of Singapore.